Services

Permanent Staffing

Expertise: Junior to Senior positions

Eagle9 Consultants has an extensive and intelligent database of skilled and qualified professionals across various domains. Eagle9 Consultants leverages this database with consultants having experience across industries and an extensive network within talent pools. This enables us to offer precise and prompt response for a wide choice of professionals with the right aptitude and attitude.

Temp Staffing

Expertise: Junior to mid positions

Clients who require Just-In-Time solutions for their talent acquisitions have benefited from Eagle9 Consultants Temp Staffing service. We assist clients with acquisitions for their non-core business and support functions that need immediate solutions with no compromise on quality. Our temp staffing solutions enable you to retain a flexible HR system, yet see productivity from Day 1.

Executive Search

Expertise: Senior positions, Niche skills, Combination of skills

The area where Eagle9 Consultants has added most value to clients is in the acquisition of professionals with Rare-Skills and successful placements for Senior Candidates. To ensure successful delivery we have deployed an 'Industry Intelligence Repository' that is regularly updated with information extracts, news flashes, analysis of white papers, magazines, journals, web articles and information gathered by our consultants. This repository enables our team to identify competent resources with strong professional track records, varied combinations of skills maintaining utmost confidentiality.

Methodology

Eagle9consultants prides itself on its benchmark methodology that is extensive yet flexible to accommodate the exact nature of your requirement. We call this the Competence Trio.

Requirements Gathering

Understanding the specific needs of the client and keeping them in mind while looking out for candidates.

Personalized Approach

Based on understanding the requirements from both, candidates and clients, we match the two before referring any candidate for a given vacancy.

Market Intelligence

In cases where a client needs a rare skill in a candidate or for bulk assignments, we possess the knowledge of who and where such specialization can be found. The turn around time for such a task is usually very less.

Our Specialized Services include

Being skilled at locating highly talented professionals, who will contribute to your organization's continued success.

Providing thorough and complete candidate screening, based on your individual needs and specifications.

For direct overseas placements, providing counseling to the selected candidates, for the visa stamping/immigration.
